How to Cheer On Belly Dancers

Belly dancers love an involved audience. Below are some honored ways to participate with the dancers and encourage them.

- → Clap—both to the beat of the music or when you enjoy a move
- ♦ Words Say/shout any or all of the following:
 - Yalla Habibi! I was told this means "Oh dancer you are so beautiful! Keep dancing!"
 - Yalla! Short version of Yalla Habibi!
 - Huzzah! It's like saying well done.
 - Aqua Aqua! Borrowed from Baila! Baila! Flamenco. Means "Oh dancer you are so hot, I need water!"
- → Sounds Make any of the following:
 - Zaghareet (will be demonstrated before the show) Make a high pitched sound in your mouth then wiggle your tongue back and forth or up and down very fast. Means you are really enjoying the show!
 - Yip! Say the word fast in a high pitched voice. Means you are enjoying the show.
- → Hiss-This is specific to Bloomington as we know that when you do this you mean we are very sensual.
